Graduates take different paths to success

265th Convocation

A Busy Time for Family Photographs

Joining the ceremony by car for the dragon was a busy time for family photographs. The graduates, faculty, and friends lined up to capture memories of the day. The atmosphere was electric, with everyone eager to celebrate the achievements of their loved ones.

Family and friends alike gathered to support the graduates, taking photos to commemorate the moment. The convocation was a celebration of hard work and accomplishment, with everyone excited to share the joy of the occasion.

The龙舟竞赛

龙舟竞赛是一项充满激情的活动，吸引了许多观众前来观看。龙舟队员们身着统一的服装，手持龙舟，精神饱满地准备进行比赛。比赛现场人声鼎沸，加油声、欢呼声此起彼伏，气氛热烈。龙舟队员们在鼓声的催促下，奋力划桨，龙舟在水面上飞速前进，展现出惊人的速度和团队协作精神。

The Mansion of the Golden Crown

The mansion of the Golden Crown is a significant landmark in the city. It has been a symbol of prosperity and grandeur for centuries. Legends tell of the crown's magical powers, which were said to bring good fortune to those who possessed it. The mansion's architecture is a testament to the skill and dedication of the city's artisans.

A Future of Possibilities

The convocation was a momentous occasion, marking the start of new journeys for the graduates. As they stepped forward to receive their diplomas, the future opened up before them, full of possibilities and promise. The world awaited them, ready for what they would bring to it.
Year-old mother sent all three of her children to Western in 1994. Stone added that three of her children started at the university in 1994. She decided to send them to Western because it was closer to home and offered better opportunities.

Ellis, a full-time student at Western, says that she is also on her way to completing her education at the university.

Western's Student Employment Conference is one of the largest in the province.

Lauren Reid's education in Western's Student Employment Conference is one of the largest in the province.

Western is currently accepting applications for its program.

More Slowly

O'Neill says she is also on her way to completing her education at Western. She decided to send her children to Western because it was closer to home and offered better opportunities.