

GRADUATION DAY

MORRIS LAMONT/The London Free Press

Wendy Stevenson is all smiles after receiving her degree Friday at Alumni Hall at the University of Western Ontario. She earned a bachelor of arts degree in sociology and won the Angela Armitt medal for her 85-per-cent average. Stevenson also earned a bachelor of social work from King's College where she won the board of directors gold medal this spring. Stevenson started her studies in 1974, but took a break to travel to Saudi Arabia, and returned to Western at age 40. Stevenson has seven children, aged five to 23, and is studying for a masters in social work at Wilfrid Laurier University.
