

— FOUR-YEAR TERM —

Named to Board of Governors

Judith Potter, currently articling with Lerner & Associates in London, has been appointed to Western's Board of Governors for a four-year term.

"We are delighted that someone with Ms. Potter's experience, education and record of community involvement will be working with us," said Earl Orser, Chairman of the Board, in making the announcement.

Potter received her L.L.B. from the University of Windsor this May, winning the Igor Kaplan Award given annually to a graduating student for academic performance, scholarship and integrity.

She completed her BA from UWO over a 10-year period through the Faculty of Part-Time and Continuing Education, obtaining an A average and finishing among the top 10 graduates from the faculty.

A homemaker who raised three children, now grown, Potter has been involved in many community organizations, both as an employee and as a volunteer.

She was Chair of the Appeal Board for the Unemployment Insurance Commission in London, 1974-84, Fund Raising Coordinator for the London Ronald McDonald House Building Campaign in 1984, project coordinator for Interiors '83, and partner and consultant with Conference Co-ordinators, 1978-83.

In the volunteer field, her activities include being a community worker with the Battered Women's Advocacy Clinic, a member of the London Advisory Committee on the Arts, an English tutor for new Canadians at International House, and a fundraiser for various organizations and causes. Potter succeeds Richard W. Ivey as one of the four members of the Board of Governors who may be appointed by the Board. Her term runs to the end of June, 1993.
