If you miss or expect to miss a lecture, an assignment deadline, the midterm, or the final examination, contact Gord Sinnamon as soon as possible. Approved absences will be accommodated.

Accommodation and Accessibility

Religious Accommodation

When a course requirement conflicts with a religious holiday that requires an absence from the University or prohibits certain activities, students should request accommodation for their absence in writing at least two weeks prior to the holiday to the course instructor and/or the Academic Counselling office of their Faculty of Registration. Please consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays \(click here\), which is updated annually. Alternatively, you may wish to enter

- <https://multiculturalcalendar.com/ecal/index.php?s=c-univwo> directly into your browser.

Accommodation Policies

Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact Accessible Education, which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. Students can consult the policy on Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities \(click here\). Alternatively, type

- www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/Academic Accommodation_disabilities.pdf

into a browser.

6. Academic Policies

The website for Registrarial Services is <http://www.registrar.uwo.ca> (click here).

In accordance with policy \(click here\), the centrally administered e-mail account provided to students will be considered the individual's official university e-mail address. It is the responsibility of the account holder to ensure that e-mail received from the University at their official university address is attended to in a timely manner. The policy referenced above can also be accessed by typing

- https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/policies_procedures/section1/mapp113.pdf

into your browser.

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy \(click here\), specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence. This policy can also be accessed by typing into your browser.

In the event of a health lock-down, tests and examinations in this course will be conducted using a remote proctoring service. By taking this course, you are consenting to the use of this software and acknowledge that you will be required to provide personal information (including some biometric data) and the session will be recorded. Completion of this course will require you to have a reliable internet connection and a device that meets the technical requirements for this service. More information about this remote proctoring service, including technical requirements, is available on Western's Remote Proctoring website at <https://remoteproctoring.uwo.ca> (click here).

7. Support Services

Please visit the Science & Basic Medical Sciences Academic Counselling webpage for information on adding/dropping courses, academic considerations for absences, appeals, exam conflicts, and many other academic related matters: <https://www.uwo.ca/sci/counselling/> (click here).

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western by visiting their website <https://uwo.ca/health/> (click here) for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Western is committed to reducing incidents of gender-based and sexual violence and providing compassionate support to anyone who has gone through these traumatic events. If you have experienced sexual or gender-based violence (either recently or in the past), you will find information about support services for survivors, including emergency contacts is available \(click here\). If you cannot access the link you can type

- https://www.uwo.ca/health/student_support/survivor_support/get-help.html

into your browser. To connect with a case manager or set up an appointment, please email support@uwo.ca.

Please contact the course instructor if you require lecture or printed material in an alternate format or if any other arrangements can make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Accessible Education \(click here\) if you have any questions regarding accommodations. If the link provided does not work, type

- http://academicsupport.uwo.ca/accessible_education/index.html

into your browser.

Learning-skills counsellors at the Student Development Centre \(click here\) are ready to help you improve your learning skills (alternatively, type <https://learning.uwo.ca> into your browser). They offer presentations on strategies for improving time management, multiple-choice exam preparation/writing, textbook reading, and more. Individual support is offered throughout the Fall/Winter terms in the drop-in Learning Help Centre, and year-round through individual counselling.

Additional student-run support services are offered by the USC, <https://westernusc.ca/services/> (click here).
